TOTAL CREDIT POINTS 72

The general electives listed above can be an opportunity to take a second major. The second major's 24 points of units can be taken as the IAD general electives. You can then graduate with a double major, which can widen your career options.

Good second majors to take alongside International Aid and Development include:

- Community Development
- Sustainable Development
- Politics and International Studies
- Environment, Conflict and Security
- International Business

Students can also consider taking an overseas (e.g. ACICIS) immersion or practicum for academic credit. For advice on double majors and overseas study opportunities, contact your Academic Chair.

Please note: This course plan is a sample only and must be read in conjunction with the full course structure, unit prerequisites and enrolment options as outlined in the Handbook. This information is correct as at 05/06/2023.
