

Banksia Association Advisory Committee

New Advisory Committee Member Nomination Form

Thank you for your interest in joining the Banksia Association Advisory (BAAC) committee. The objectives of the Banksia Association are:

- to celebrate and maintain connections between former staff and other key stakeholders and support Murdoch University's proud tradition of engaging with the community, both internally and externally;
- to encourage fellowship between members through organised activities;
- to support the University's Mission and provide advice and assistance as appropriate including, for example, via committees, mentoring (both staff and students) and other University activities;
- to support the development of Murdoch University as a world class provider of tertiary education and research; and
- to raise the profile of Murdoch University throughout the external community by, for example, fostering strong relationships with education, community and business leaders.

The role of BAAC is to provide leadership and guide the development of the Association. This role may include:

- providing advice to the Vice-Chancellor in relation to and assisting with planning specific Banksia Association events, including the annual Banksia Association dinner and/or event;
- providing input as to membership criteria for new Banksia Association members and nominating potential new members to the Vice-Chancellor;
- encouraging input and feedback from other Association members; and
- fundraising for the Banksia Association Scholarship and other nominated programmes of support for Murdoch University.

Expressions of interest for membership of the Banksia Association Advisory Committee (BAAC) are considered by the BAAC. Following recommendation from the BAAC, the Vice Chancellor may appoint for a three-year term, renewable for up to two additional terms, in accordance with BAAC Terms of Reference. All BAAC members will have a commitment to the objectives of the Banksia Association.

The BAAC will normally meet quarterly. The Vice-Chancellor may convene a meeting at any time. The Chair may also convene a Special Meeting of the BAAC as required. At least 24 hours' notice will be given.
