CHANCELLOR'S MESSAGE

It is my great pleasure to congratulate you on the successful culmination of your course of study with Murdoch University.

Your degree equips you with the skills you need for an exciting career in your chosen field, along with the capacity for creativity, curiosity and critical thinking that are the foundation stones of a rich, rewarding life.

I know from personal experience the power of a Murdoch education. Many years ago, I was able to enrol by correspondence as a mature-aged student, the mother of three young children. After achieving my degree, I pursued a varied and exciting career in public life – one that led to my eventual appointment as Chancellor of Murdoch University!

I am therefore supremely confident that the knowledge and values you have learned as part of your Murdoch experience will give you the tools to understand our world and bring about change for the better.

The privilege of a university education should compel you to not only seek out a wonderful career, but to use your skills to give back to society, to make your mark, to truly make the world a better place.

As a valued Murdoch alumni, I also hope that your graduation will not be the end of your Murdoch experience – and that you remain connected to your alma mater through the many professional and personal rewards offered by our Office of Alumni and Philanthropy. Graduates of Murdoch University, I congratulate you on your accomplishments and wish you continued success as you embark on the next exciting stage of your life's journey.

Yours sincerely,

Gail McGowan PSM
Chancellor

CHARGE TO GRADUATES

Graduates, it is my great honour to welcome you to the fellowship of educated people.

The award of a university degree carries many privileges but like all privileges it also carries responsibilities. As graduates of Murdoch University, I urge you to use what you have learnt for your own betterment and for the benefit of the community.

I encourage you to use the skills and knowledge you have acquired with rigour and integrity and to commit yourselves to a program of life-long learning and discovery. I invite you to remember the lessons Murdoch has taught you about the worth of others, particularly those who have not had the opportunities that you have had.

At all times you should strive to set high goals and to continue the hard work that has brought you so far.

And finally, in all you do, I charge you to be deserving of the good name of Murdoch University.

Murdoch University Philanthropy

Murdoch University is committed to making our world a better place through outstanding research and educational opportunities. As one of our talented alumni, you too can have an impact when partnering with your university.

Our alumni are all at different stages of both their lives and careers, and contribute to their community in both big and small ways. As they mature, many choose to invest in our students and research through philanthropic support.

The Office of Alumni and Philanthropy works to link alumni, leading businesses, individuals, and community-minded groups with opportunities at Murdoch. Avenues for support can be via bequests, major gifts, annual and regular giving or sponsorships and can contribute to advancing world leading research, providing academic positions, purchasing equipment, further capital development and funding life changing scholarships for our students.

Our Philanthropy team is here to help you explore opportunities, connect to the University, and realise joint aspirations through financial and in-kind donations. They cultivate and steward key relationships by uniting individuals and organisations with Murdoch's philanthropic priorities, to use our academic strength and resources to make the world a better place together.

We invite you to become involved in your community's future by reaching out to our office at any time for an exploratory conversation.

If you are ready to support now, contact the Philanthropy Team via phone (+61) 8 9360 6211 or email philanthropy@murdoch.edu.au
