

Complete Withdrawal from Course

Online Application for Murdoch Transnational Students

Student Number		Course
Surname			Given name

Before you complete this form, the University strongly encourages you to seek advice from your Academic Chair and/or other support services such as the Student Services teams at the partner institution in Singapore/Dubai. You can withdraw or discontinue studies for up to two trimesters (post-grad) or up to four trimesters (under-grad) by using intermission without this affecting your student enrolment status. You can also transfer between most Bachelor degrees instead of completely withdrawing.

Submission of Form: This editable form is to be completed and submitted to the Student Services teams at the partner institution in Singapore/Dubai.

Reason for Request – the University is interested in the reasons you are withdrawing from the course.
